To All Officers in the D.C. Area:

The Reserve Officer's Association's (ROA) Mid-Winter Conference is being held this month at the Washington Hilton Hotel, from January 25-28, 2004. Of special note for the NOAA Corps is the Naval Services luncheon on Monday, January 26, where ROA will make a special presentation to the NOAA ACO's Junior Officer of the Year. ROA does an excellent job of recognizing the efforts of junior officers of all the services and I'm sure this year's luncheon will be no exception.

NMAO and the NOAA Corps will once again have a booth at the conference and I've asked LCDR Raymond Slagle to coordinate our efforts at staffing the exhibit. As with last year's participation, our exhibit will focus on the Corps, as well as the work of our ships and aircraft. Please contact Ray (301-713-3444 x-108) by Thursday, January 22, 2004 if you are able to staff one of the time slots for the conference. Additional information on the conference and registration for the Naval Services luncheon can be found at: www.roa.org

The times available, which require two (2) officers each, are:

Sunday, January 25, 2004

1200 - 1400 ** Exhibit set-up (must be coordinated with LCDR Slagle)

1630 - 1830
